

MILITARY SHIPS

Matching Activity

Match the word on the left to its definition on the right.

GPS

a tall pole that holds up a ship's sails.

mast

to plan and manage the course of a ship or other vehicle.

nuclear power

a system that uses information from satellites to determine an object's location on Earth.

navigate

the process of splitting tiny particles to produce energy.

oar

a flat piece of wood or metal located at the back of a ship and used for steering.

rudder

a pole with a flat blade that sailors can use to move a boat through the water.

